6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing quality assurance strategies and processes visible in terms of incremental improvements

The college's IQAC has employed a number of quality assurance techniques in an attempt to improve the calibre of the organization across all divisions, including:

- At regular IQAC meetings, which are led by IQAC coordinator along with the honourable principal of the college. They have a set agenda, each member is requested to provide proposals for enhancing the curriculum and its implementation.
- Participating in orientation, refresher training, workshops, seminars, and conferences is recommended for upgradation of knowledge of all faculty members so they can relate advance knowledge in their lecturer.
- Faculties who have experience in research are motivated to publish their research work through organisation and also create an environment for students to participate in research projects.
- The IQAC also provides guidance, internet access, and verification services for students applying for financial aid, grants, free ship cards, and educational loans.
- Teachers, including those from Grant-in-aid and Self-financed, are provided with support and encouragement to participate in the evaluation of final (external) examinations.
