ABOUT LUCKNOW

The name of Lucknow city can be traced back to the epic "Ramayan". When Lord Rama returned to Ayodhya, after 14 years of exile he gifted this place to his younger brother Lakshman. Who is believed to have stayed in Lakshman Teela, a high ground on the banks of the Gomti. Later, the region was named after his as 'Lakshmanpur'. There are other stories that do the rounds Lucknow was named after a very influential person called 'Lakhan Ahir' who built the fort 'Qila Lakhan'. The name 'Qila Lakhan' later became Lucknow. Some other sources says that one Lakhu Khan, earlier a non - Muslim having the name Laxan Singh, had lent his name to Lucknow.

The city has archaeological remains dating back to 3000 BC but Lucknow's foundations were laid in the 13th century A. D. Lakshman Teela, the central part of the city, is believed to have been the site where a fort was built by a calm from Bijnor. By the end of the 13th century, the fort had fallen into the hands of the Sharqui rulers of Janunpur. Who held it till 1476 in the 1540s, the fort was annexed by the Sultan of Delhi, Sher Shah Suri (Regained 1540 - 45). Historically, Cantonments were places where the army of colonial government had to be exclusively quartered in an effort to keep the armed forces totally insulated from the ruled.

2. AIM & OBJECTIVES OF STUDY TOUR

AIM

- Social Work as a profession can't be taught merely in the four walls of classrooms. Only theoretical knowledge is not sufficient enough to build competitive and efficient social works. Social work is incomplete without practical knowledge.

DAY-7

Date: 11th Oct, 2023

Day: Wednesday

Visit of the Central Jail of Lucknow

The students of social work first visit was to the Central Jail Lucknow, building which was established in 2006. During this visit, the students and faculty members had the privilege of being addressed by Mr. Ajay Kumar, the Deputy Jailer. The students had the opportunity to explore various areas of the jail including the common hall, library, teaching room, skill development room, and kitchen area. This visit provided valuable insights into the types of crimes committed, as well as the processes of parole, probation, and the prison manual for justice and punishment. Additionally, the students gained knowledge about the functioning of courts, the role of counselors, access to online data on the website, and the daily routine of prisoners.

After that the vote of thanks ceremony was performed by Dr. Ashvin Patel and Mr. Jaydev Vaghela had offered the memento to the Deputy Jailer Mr. Ajay Kumar.

Visit of the Model jail of Lucknow

The students of social work second visit was to Model Jail Lucknow, which was established in 2008. This jail holds the distinction of being the first model jail in the entire Uttar Pradesh. During the visit, students were fortunate to be guided by Mr.

Pankaj Kumar Singh, Jailor of the Model Jail Lucknow. The students had the opportunity to explore various departments within the jail that are dedicated to the rehabilitation of prisoners. Students witnessed the intricate process of fabric making in the Fabric Department, observed the bakery area and even had the chance to see the printing press and observe the printing process. Additionally, students visited the Handmade Paper Industry, the assembly hall, and the hospital. Prisoners perform a cultural programme. One particularly interesting aspect Students learned during their visit was that prisoners go outside for work in the morning and come back in evening to the jail. Whole day they can work outside and earn money. There was a sarpanch within the prison. This individual serves as the representative of the prisoners, ensuring their voices are heard and their concerns addressed.

Overall, the visit to Model Jail Lucknow was both enlightening and inspiring. It provided students a deeper understanding of the efforts being made to rehabilitate prisoners and reintegrate them into society. The jailor of Model jail is working on thinking that in Life there should be always a second chance to be better in life.
